Instructions:

You have been provided with a copy of "The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership" by John Maxwell. Please read the document and reflect on the laws presented. After reading, choose the five laws that resonate most with you. In a brief essay, explain why each of these laws is meaningful to you and how they apply to your personal or professional life. Your essay should include:

1. A clear identification of each of the five chosen laws.
2. A description of why each law resonates with you.
3. Specific examples or experiences that illustrate how each law relates to you personally or professionally.

You may complete your essay by handwriting it or typing it on a computer. Once completed, submit your essay to management for review and approval.
